

Title: The amazing Day

Last summer I went to a fishing derby on a Tuesday and it took a half an hour to get there. Nick, the host of the game, gathered all of everyone's things for when it's time for the game all you have to do is go get your things and go. Clint yelled, come and sign up. My sister was 3 so she could not sign up.

I could sign up because I was 10 and you had to be 10 and older. Nick told us to go pick your spot well, I picked the spot by the huge oak tree. Around 3:45 the game started. I was having trouble catching fish so my grandpa Chuck asked me to put more bait so I did. Right before I went to cast my line the wind blew my line into the huge oak tree my sister Sam mumbled.

I tried so many different times to get the line unstuck but nothing worked. Nick put the game on pause. It took about three hours to get my line unstuck. First we tried to shake the tree but the tree was too big. My sister is only 3. She just learned how to talk. Her name is Samantha and she is 2 feet tall and she was acting like a teenager. After all the drama I had to climb the tree to get my line unstuck. Nick started the game only 2 minutes in and I caught a 11.25 inch wide mouth rock bass and I won. My mom and dad taught me a party.
