

The Best Thing Happened

By: Clara Wolf

One day I was at my house. I woke up to the sound of rain and I said, "NO!!"
I had planned to walk to the library, but now I couldn't go! I was sad.

I sat down, and looked out the window, and that's when I saw it. A fairy. I was so surprised, that I opened the door. The fairy came in and sat on a chair. I asked, "Can I have a wish?" The fairy said, "Yes!" So I wished that I could become a princess with a unicorn, and the wish came true.

I was excited because I could ride the unicorn whenever I wanted.
