

Title: Minions Of The Zombie
Apocalypse
Written By:Cullen Schmolt

There were two minions named Billy and Frank. The two minions were talking about going swimming then they went to the swimming place but no one was there. Then they went in the swimming place they got a lot of free stuff because no one was there they got hot dogs a free pool to there self and anything else that is in a indoor swimming place.

When Billy and Frank were swimming the lights flickered then the lights just turned off at least there were free flashlights then they saw zombies and "Billy and Frank said it is a zombie apocalypse"

Then they were running and screaming then there were free fart guns then Billy and Frank blasted the zombies then the zombie apocalypse was over.

Then after the zombie apocalypse Billy woke up and it was and Billy" said it was just a dream".

That exact day there was a zombie apocalypse and it would never stop and Billy found another Frank that was still alive and they work together and Billy and Frank did not no each other and it took days to fight the zombies but they finally beat them but they saw another one and they "said what"

And that one was the fastest and they led him to the boss of the zombies and Frank and Billy tried to defeat the zombie but it took a couple more days but they defeated the boss and the two minions named Billy and Frank saved the world and they got awards for surviving the zombie apocalypse.
