

Title: The Missing Monkey
Written By: Evelyn Scritchfield

Do you like short stories? Well here is a short story. In the beginning, the characters are a girl named Emily and a monkey named Elon. Emily is nine years old and Elon is two years old. The story mostly takes place in Mrs and Mr.Johnson's house,those are Emily's parents. It also takes place in the present. Emily and Elon are watching tv in Emily's room

Next, Emily went to school with Elon for show and tell, everyone loved Elon. Emily went home after school and put Elon in her cage. Emily forgot to close the cage door. Emily went to bed and slept over for school. She woke up and looked at the time. She jumped up and got ready. She looked at the cage. Elon wasn't in the cage. Emily looked around for Elon. Emily went downstairs to ask her mom and dad. "We don't know where he went!" Emily got scared. Then Emily goes outside and looks around for Elon. She didn't know where she was. Well she didn't want to be more late then she already is. So she goes back inside, gets dressed and goes to school. When she gets there Emily goes to the teachers office for a snack. But when she got there she saw Elon taking bananas out of the fridge.

Finally Emily took Elon home and went back to school. After school,Emily came home, did her homework, got Elon out of her cage, got a blanket and made popcorn and sat down and watched a movie.
