

gTitle:The Minion and the Puppy vs the Wolves
Written By:Jackson Williams

One day there was a Minion named Bob. He found a puppy in his backyard forest. In the beginning Bob was swimming in his pool when he heard a noise . So he went to go see what it was. It was a puppy who was trying to hide from wolves.

After Bob saw that he tried to save the puppy so he waited. When the wolves were distracted he went and grabbed the puppy. He brought the puppy to his house but the wolves were following him. So he grabbed a bat from his garage and knocked one of them out. But there were still two more so he slapped both of them and they ran away.

Due to saving the puppy Bob decided to adopt the puppy. He named the puppy Frank. So a couple months later they bought a new house. It had a big backyard for Frank to run and play. After all they got a big house for the both of them and they had a happy life.

The next year they had an apocalypse of wolves. But now Frank is not a puppy any more so they gathered gear from their garage. Bob and Frank got on a motorcycle and rode off. Frank and Bob went to go see what was happening so they went and checked it out. There were ten wolves at the mall so Bob and Frank went to their tree house to be safe.

A little later there were four wolves below the tree house so they grabbed the bats that were in the tree house and threw them at the wolves. Bob and Frank knocked out two of the wolves but there were two wolves left. So their plan was to distract them and run out the back. So they threw one of the books the wolves went to go get it. They ran and got on the motorcycle to go somewhere else.

Bob and Frank ran out of food so they went to the store and they got some food. But then they realised that they could go to the arcade to play some games so they played for a long time. When they left they saw someone it was a director for a movie then they realised they were the movie. They did all that for nothing so then they just decided to go home.
