

Title: The Lost Girls
Written By: Katie Weis

"Are you sure we're going the right way?" asked Luna. "I'm sure of it." answered Jessie. You better be! said Carmen.

They were biking through the forest cold and hungry in springtime. "Jessie?" asked Luna.

"What?" Asked Jessie.

"I think you already know this but we're cold and hungry. Can we stop and make a fort and find some food?" asked Luna.

"I agree!" Carmen said in agreement.

"Fine" said Jessie.

They all stopped their bikes and started to build a fort and find some food while Jessie tried the phones

"Dang! said Jessie

"What happened? Asked Carmen.

"No signal!" Said Jessie, disappointed.

"What do we do then?" Asked Luna.

"Let me try something. Said Jessie. And then Jessie screamed "HELP!". But no one answered." Dang we're never getting home. Cried Jessie.

"Don't

Say that you'll make me cry. said Luna trying not to cry.

Ya me too. Said Carmen trying not to cry.

Hey guys look light! Let's follow it, said Jessie.

They follow the light and find a town they call home and got picked up, then they build a path and visit their fort every day.
