

Title: The Mystery
Written By: Kylie Conrad

Sally was at work. She is a reporter. Sally got a call it was from her boss. Her boss said

Sally, there is a story I need you to work on." Sally went right to work. Sally got a call from her friend Jenna. Sally went to the library. When she got there it was a mess.

Jenna said " It was like that when I got here." Jenna got a call from Rockville.ge. Which is wear they are from. So, Jenna picked up the phone and it was Mike. He is a police officer. Mike said that their friend Molly was taken. Sally and Jenna were so sad so they went home. Sally went to Jenna's house. She spent the night. Before they went to sleep Sally got a call and the guy said" Is Molly there?" Sally hung up the phone and went to bed.

The next day they all went to find Molly. They had no luck but the didn't give up.They kep looking and looking until they found a wood house in the forest. They looked all around until they found a clue. The clue read, " If you are looking for Molly you're in the wrong place, follow the river and past the lake."

Sally and the others went to the river and past the lake until they found footprints. They were Molly's. They followed the prints until they found Molly.

Sally and Jenna took Molly home.Sally's boss told her to write a story about how they found Molly.

In the end it was all normal again. Sally was writing reports. The library was clean. Molly was back to the bakery and kep making pastries. Everyone was happy but ware was Mike. Mike got lost in the forest. Mike got out and it was a real happy ending.
