

Title: The Triplets
Written By: sierra gerbetz

Hello my name is Liza I am 11. I have two siblings. (We are the triplets). The oldest is Zach he is 12 and the youngest is Becky she's ten. I have blonde hair and blue eyes. My brother has brown hair and blue eyes. My sister has brown hair and teal eyes. My brother and I like orange. Becky likes pink like the other girls in school. I hate school. All we do is just sit around and learn, which I think is doing nothing. I barely have any friends. Lets get on with the story of how we got lost in the woods.

My sister and I were at the beach and wanted to swim. But my sister did not like water so I did not swim. I was not happy that I did not get to swim but oh well. We had to go home to wake up zach. Let's play outside with the ball. Why did you kick the ball in the woods? Oh well lets go get the ball. We finally got the ball.

Ummm where are we? I think we are lost. What do we do? I know we can follow the birds' voices since we have a bird feeder at home. That's not gonna work, our bird feeder is broken and taken down, said becky. Well what about we follow our footprints. Not gonna work, I don't see any footprints, Said Zach. What about we call mom? I can call one person before my phone dies. I just told mom to come out back and yell as loud as she can. I hear her lets go. We are home. I miss you mom, said becky. We all do, said everyone. YEARS LATER. I miss you dad. Hello it's me liza again I am 15 zach is 16 and Becky is 13. Our dad is dead and our mom is 73. We are the triplets.
